OLLI at Illinois is an always-evolving laboratory for the potentials of education across a lifetime.
Summarizing the Move

OLLI at Illinois is a division of the Office of the Provost.

Support and funding come from this office and other sources:
40%  Member/Activity Fees
38.8%  University
18.2%  Osher Endowment
3%  Donor Gifts
ABOUT THE FACILITY DECISION PROCESS

- Lease in Atkins Building expires June 30, 2015
- Procurement Process – began in mid-2014
- Review of the two viable proposals – select M2 as the proposal that best meets OLLI’s needs and strategic plan
OLLi at M2 Building
With the generous support of the University of Illinois’ Office of the Provost and the funding provided by the Osher Endowment, OLLI will move to its new location in summer 2015.
How will this move change OLLI’s programming and membership benefits?
OLLI will continue to offer the same high-quality courses, study groups, and programs that you currently enjoy.

The expanded space will also offer opportunities for new educational and engagement activities.

• Atkins Building – 4,300 square feet
• M2 Building – 8,000 square feet
Welcome to OLLI at Illinois at M2!
CLASSROOMS and SEMINAR SPACES

- One large classroom – 150+ (can also be divided into 2 classrooms seating 65-70 each)
  – construction on this space is underway

- One classroom – capacity 65

- Two study group/seminar rooms – flexible

- A board/committee meeting room
Next to main reception area

Next to classroom spaces

Two gathering areas for members
Each classroom, seminar space, and meeting area will have the appropriate furnishings and audio-visual equipment for its size and configuration.
The space will also be equipped with wireless Internet access – both U of I password-protected Wi-Fi and open-access Wi-Fi (no password needed).
Classroom (pre-construction) – these two spaces have been combined to create the 65-seat classroom
Carpeting will be added to this space, and it will be available for study groups and variable classroom set-ups

This space will remain un-carpeted, for use by both study groups and classes, including those that involve movement (tai chi, etc.)

Study Group/Multi-Use Rooms
Board and Committee Room
In addition to the fully accessible public and classroom spaces, the new facility also offers expanded administrative space – including staff offices and secure storage space for files, supplies, and technology.
Move-related documents can be found on OLLI homepage – www.olly.illinois.edu
The M2 location offers easy access to the University of Illinois campus, public transportation, and many restaurants, coffee shops, parks, and other downtown amenities.
