

Time to remember the best voting advice I have heard - Voting isn't marriage - it's public transport.

You are not waiting for "the one"
who is absolutely perfect.

You are getting the bus.

And if there isn't one going exactly to your destination, you don't stay at home and sulk - you take the one going closest to where you want to be.
